Analyze web Server logs using webalizer

Aim:

To analyze web server log after using webalizer generate statistics about website traffic, visitors, requests and bandwidth usage.

Procedure:

1. Install and configure the webalizer tool on the system.
2. Locate the webserver log file to be analyzed.
3. Run webalizer to process the web server logs.
4. open the generated HTML report in a web browser.
5. Analyze visitor activity and traffic patterns using the graphs and tables.
6. Save or review the generated report.

Result:

Thus webalizer was used to analyze web server logs files successfully and statistical reports using website traffic, visitor, requests and bandwidth usage were generated.